

A goat has been given in your honor to a widow or orphaned head of household in rural Rwanda. These people endured great hardships during the 1994 genocide, but with this gift have finally regained hope for the future and become less dependent on subsistence farming.